

James Salsbury

Britton Construction Estimator and Project Manager: 2006 to present

Related Experience

Primary Responsibilities include the Management and Estimating of UNM and UNMH projects from inception to completion. Project Management duties include coordination of Britton personnel, subcontractors, suppliers, contract administration, and overall facilitation of successful project execution. Currently managing 13 Britton personnel and numerous subcontractors. Presently attending classes to obtain LEED AP status.

Britton Construction: 2006 Present
HB Construction: 2004-2006
Luther Construction: 2000-2004
B and T Truss 1998 - 2000

Project Experience

UNM Casterter Hall South Addition (LEED PROJECT)
UNMH Suicide Hazard Abatement Program
UNM Zimmerman Library Basement Rebuild
UNM Business Center HR IT Lobo Center
UNM Business Center HR Compensation Department
UNM OCP TI
UNM Tech Park AIMS School
UNMH Psychiatric Nurse Station
UNMH Radiology Room 4
UNMH College of Nursing and Pharmacy Plaza Level Restroom Remodel
UNMH 1101-4 Suite A Clinic Remodel
Sandia National Laboratories ES&H Building 1090
NMJC Ben Alexander Student Center; Hobbs, New Mexico
NMJC Western Heritage Museum and Cowboy Hall of Fame; Hobbs, New Mexico

Education

University of New Mexico: 1999-2005
School of Civil Engineering- Construction Management

Other Relevant Information

Other Qualifications: 10 hour OSHA, Certified CPR, CSI Certified Specifier

Project Owner References

Bob Henson - UNMH Director of Facilities and Plant. Ops	505-272-2837
Steve Chavez- UNM Office of Capital Projects: Construction Manager	505-553-1945
Jay Davis- Greg T. Hicks and Associates: Contract Administrator	505-243-7492
Scott Johnson- Fanning Bard Tatum Architects: Principal Architect	505-883-5200